MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Director's Address at the Army War
College (AWC)

1. In view of the Director's forthcoming address of the National Strategy Seminar at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on 7 June 1972, I feel it would be appropriate for you to mention to him the background and circumstances of the Agency's projected termination of its representation to the AWC.

STAT

2. You will recall that the Director approved a one-year trial assignment for [redacted] as the Agency's representative to the AWC. A copy of the Agency's agreement is attached. It would be helpful for the DCI to be aware of your recent communication with General Davis and the subsequent developments regarding our representation at the AWC before he goes to Carlisle.

3. Also attached is a brief statement on the Agency's only student in the present class at the AWC.

Major General G. S. Eckhardt, USA
Commandant, U. S. Army War College
Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania 17013

Dear George:

We are pleased to nominate [redacted] as the CIA representative to the Army War College. [redacted] a GS-16, holds a PhD in History and International Relations and has served in key assignments both in headquarters and abroad. He is also a distinguished graduate of the Air War College. A brief curriculum vitae is enclosed.

STAT

Since [redacted] will be the first Agency representative on the faculty of the Army War College, we recommend that this assignment be for a one year period. If the arrangement proves to be mutually advantageous, the possibility of an extension for an additional year could then be explored.

STAT

[redacted] is available for personal interviews at your convenience.

Sincerely,

L. K. [redacted]

Colonel White:

The attached analysis from OTR came out with much more of a bias than we had anticipated. On balance (and Bob Wattles did go through all the files) we believe that [ ] is probably STAT the best candidate. [ ] STAT

[ ] we believe to be the only "competition". STAT

We pulled the files in case you wish to go into records in greater depth.
